As the President of a successful technology consultation firm, I have cultivated very exacting standards for excellence within my organization. The primary cornerstone of this success as an end-to-end provider and the main reason for our outstanding reputation in our industry is the team of excellent professionals we have built up around us, both in terms of employee relationships and in terms of vendor partnerships. One such relationship that deserves special recognition is the one with a company known as Dramatic Visions.

Dramatic Visions and its proprietor Becky Wolff through a partnering relationship provide AnalySYS' small and medium size commercial clients with web and e-commerce solutions. Ms. Wolff's service model and her superb relationships with her clients is a model to be followed. She is consistently on time and on budget. She delivers first-rate end products at a reasonable cost. Most importantly, she knows that the customer always comes first, no matter what.

Because we at AnalySYS focus intensely on our core business of supporting the information technology of our clients, we find that it is best for us to allow companies such as Dramatic Visions to take care of certain peripheral needs our clients may have. It always makes our job easier when we can simply pass a project along and know that it will be serviced well. Personally speaking, I have been the recipient of a number of unsolicited positive remarks, e-mails, letters, and other feedback from AnalySYS clients about Dramatic Visions.

It is with great pleasure that I recognize and express my sincerest appreciation and respect for the services of one of our most valued partners, Dramatic Visions and Becky Wolff. I consider myself fortunate to have the opportunity to work with them. If you are entertaining the possibility of contracting with Dramatic Visions for your own design needs, I personally vouch for them, and should you wish, I invite you to contact me should you have any questions or wish to discuss this testimonial further.

Sincerely,

Stephen V. Kolbe
President
